MINISTERS.

Are Yet at Work in the Session of the Annual Conference.

BISHOP KEY PREACHES.

Much Routine Business Transacted--Preaching at the Church To-Night.

Last night a large congregation listened to an able and eloquent sermon by the Rev. Geo. F. Campbell of Las Cruces. The sermon was a most excellent one and those who went expecting much, went away not disappointed.

This morning at the beginning of the conference session Rev. Clayton, a super-annuated minister, made a pathetic talk and asked the prayers of the conference that he might remain to the end faithful in his Master's service.

Rev. T. L. Lallance, the presiding elder of the El Paso district reported the district in a healthy condition financially and spiritually. Rev. D. L. Callie of El Paso reported his church in a prosperous state, that it was growing in membership, the property was enhancing in value, and the condition was now certainly the best. Rev. Foulke of Alpine reported progress in all lines and considering his ill health the work he has accomplished is remarkable. He is a zealous worker.

Pecos was next reported. The charge has been unfortunate because of sick pastors. Rev. James, recently placed in charge of the work, gave a very favorable report in view of existing conditions.

Rev. W. E. Lyon next made a report of the Roswell church showing a forward movement along all lines. Every interest in the church is well organized and there has been a large increase in membership. The church debt has been almost eliminated. The Home Mission society has raised over one thousand dollars this year.

Next came a report that seemed a little short of miraculous from Rev. M. D. Hill of Portales. He began there in January with a little box house and 43 members. They now have an elegant new church recently dedicated and a membership of 163.

Rev. Goodson, who has been long known and loved by the people of Roswell, has again found an extended welcome among his many friends of former days. He gave in his report of the church at Carlsbad. Finding the church and congregation in almost hopeless despair he went to work with that characteristic zeal typical of the western preacher, and as a result he now has the church in an excellent condition. All financial claims have been met and he has a Children's society of 65 members.

After these reports Dr. Lambuth, the General Missionary Secretary, was introduced. He first paid a tribute to the faithful self-sacrifice of the ministers of the New Mexico conference, stating that they are accomplishing more under conditions than the strong bodies back east. He then gave some thrilling experiences of missionary life and said that one thing needful today in the church is leadership and statesmanship. He told how the church had progressed in foreign fields and said that in 1875 the church had four missionaries in China and 30 members.

Now the church has missions in China, Japan, Corea, Mexico, Cuba, and aggregates in these lands about 13,000 members. Now in our hospitals 17,000 patients are being treated yet there are some who even do not believe in missions. The address was a most excellent and inspiring one.

Bishop Key preached the sermon this morning. He took as his text Proverbs 14-14. "A good man shall be satisfied from himself." It would be impossible in a brief sketch to give a synopsis of this masterful sermon. He said in part that satisfaction is not to be secured in worldly pleasures and associations; that domestic misery is too often portrayed in the faces of the rich and that the church members and preachers are not exempt from that uneasy, dissatisfied state. Peace and satisfaction can alone come from Him whose abounding grace can renew and readjust a human soul. Man plants and reaps for satisfaction, but if God creates in the soul this hungering for peace will not He make provision for satisfying the same. The prescription from the Divine physician will cure every ill. More forcible words were never uttered than those of our Lord when He declared his own Divine power and standing above the wreck and ruin of humanity He said: "Come unto me ye that labor and are heavy laden and He will give you rest." The peace that He gives us comes from the consciousness that He was the Son of God. David had that peace when he felt that the Lord was his shepherd, and that his shepherd would protect him and that he might go down and rest in the green pastures of Divine grace. Paul had that peace, though shipwrecked and dashed upon the waves, though stoned and imprisoned he rose superior to all these and cried out, "In whatever state I am I have learned therewith to be content." Man must have confidence in himself, and with a clear conscience he can overcome the world, but with a blackened soul and a stony heart

SAVED SIMPSON'S LIFE.

When Simpson Was Captain of a Lake Steamer.

Capt. Fred Kendrick, the government inspector who has been in charge of the dredging now just completed, has a gold medal awarded by the government for bravery for saving 44 lives, one of whom was the sice notorious Jerry Simpson.

It was on Nov. 1, 1878, when the four masted schooner J. H. Rutter dragged her anchor and foundered one mile north of Ludington. She had on board a crew of eight men, and 36 men of Ludington were on board for the purpose of shifting the cargo of grain which had caused the vessel to list.

The schooner was aground with decks level with the water, there 14 feet deep, and the waves of a November storm washed over the vessel, driving the men into the shrouds where they hung almost freezing.

Capt. Kendrick was captain of the U. S. tug Graham, and he towed the life boat of the station to the schooner, took off a number of men and repeated the fearful trip twice, making three trips in all and bringing off the 44 men without one being injured. A purse of $60 was raised for the crew of four men of the tug Graham and a fine banquet given them. The owners of the schooner gave Capt. Kendrick a pair of very fine marine glasses while the government gave him a gold medal which he naturally prizes very highly.

Jerry Simpson was captain of the schooner, but he quit the lakes and he is a moral coward and can accomplish naught. In conclusion Bishop Key spoke of his sympathy for the preachers of New Mexico, how often he thought of them and prayed for them. No sermon since the beginning of the conference has been so deeply appreciated as this sermon of Bishop Key.

This afternoon the Woman's Home Mission society is holding a meeting at the church, and tonight Rev. Brag of the Indian Conference will preach. All are cordially invited.

BAND CONCERT

To Be Given Thursday Night of Next Week.

On Thursday, September 24, the band boys are going to give a concert at the opera house, assisted by the best local talent of Roswell. A most enjoyable time is promised. For those who like comedy of the rip-snorting, button-bursting variety there will be something irrepressibly funny by the band's Dutch comedian Walter Moir, assisted by other members of the band. For those who love and appreciate good music, Mrs. McKay with the assistance of many others will render something pleasing. The Roswell band quartet will contribute many numbers.

For those who like dancing there will be a dance after the show is over. Popular prices 35 and 50c admission to the concert. Admission to the dance 50c, ladies free. The band is yet $120 behind on the instruments purchased some time ago. Come on and enjoy yourself and get your money's worth. Don't forget the date, September 24, on Thursday at 8 o'clock p. m.

Just blow yourself for tickets for the show that night, But don't forget to have your buttons sewed on tight.

A Geographical Love Song.
(A valuable railroad publication produces the following from the drive wheels of its official poet.)

In the state of Mass.
There lives a lass
I love to go N. C.
No other Miss.
Can e'er I wis.
Be half so dear to me.

R. I. is blue
And cheeks the hue
Of shells where waters swash.
On her pink-white phiz
There Nev. Ariz.
The least complexion wash.

La, I could win
The heart of Minn.
I'd ask for nothing more.
But I only dream
Upon the theme
And Conn. it o'er and Ore.
Why is it, pray,
I can't Ala.
This love that makes me ill.
N. Y., O., Wy.,
Can never I
Propose to her my will.

I shun the task
'Twould be to ask
This gentle maid to wed.
So to press
My suit I guess
Alaska Pa. instead.
